

Testimony of

Caroline Sarlo

Before the

Education Committee

March 1, 2023

As a teacher I know first hand how hard it is to meet individual student needs with a large class. I believe that it is very important to cap the class size so students individual needs are met. These students are our future so let's start making sure they get the education they deserve lets meet all of their needs.