

Testimony of

Sarah Allen

Regional District 10 Educator

Before the

Education Committee

March 1, 2023

Large class sizes can often lead to students being lost in the mix. It can also lead to longer wait time for feedback on assignments. Timely feedback is crucial to student learning. Larger class sizes also make it difficult for teachers to implement more hands on activities and give personalized attention to all groups while they work. I hope that we are able to pass the smaller class size caps to help benefit all students. Thank you

